

QUEER AND FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES ON BODY AND SOCIETY

On the 8th of March, an international day of feminist struggle, we, the queer and feminist action group of the Institute of Romance Studies Vienna (QFAG), are organizing an exhibition on the topic 'Queer and feminist perspectives on body and society'. We are looking for artists who explore corporeality, queerness, feminisms and/or their influence on society

The exhibition will inaugurate on March 7, 2024 on the first floor of the Institute of Romance Studies. The art works will be exhibited here throughout March and thus presented to a wide audience.

The art works should not exceed the A2 format. There are no further conditions for participation. We are particularly happy to receive submissions from queer and feminist artists.
Interested in participating?

Send to qfag.wien@gmail.com by 15.2.2024:

- 1 portfolio, social media or website
- 2 some informations about you
- 3 photos of the art work(s) you would like to exhibit

We look forward to your submission!
